A Christmas Carol

November 21-24, 2013

Thursday, Friday & Saturday at 7:30 pm

Sunday Matinee at 2:00 pm

Director's Notes

We hope that our production of this classic tale of redemption and the true spirit of Christmas will set the tone for the upcoming holiday season. Too often in the hustle and bustle of our modern times, we forget the true meaning of Christmas and often feel that it is all just humbug. Let us recapture the feeling of love and happiness as Scrooge did and go forth with generous hearts toward all we encounter. Let our actions reflect the true Christmas spirit.

The cast and crew all wish you a Merry Christmas.

– Claudia White

---

Please do not use electronic devices during the show as it is very distracting to the other audience members.

- ⇒ Set your cell phone to silent or turn it off.
- ⇒ Do not record on your cell phone or tablet in front of another audience members.
- ⇒ No texting during performances. The bright light from your display is disturbing to your neighbor. It's amazing how bright one cell phone light can be in a dark theatre.
- ⇒ No flash photography during the performance.
- ⇒ No talking during the performance.

Try Outs for Curiosity Cat by Chris Grabenstein

December 1, 2013, 2:00-4:00

December 2, 2013, 5:30-7:30

Production Dates: February 20-23, 2014

When their mother becomes very ill, Clare and Charlie are forced to live with their father's Aunt Ginny. A stray cat named Curiosity also wanders into the house. When he breaks Clare's prized music box, she immediately throws his back out into the streets. Being homeless is an adventure, not a concern, for a cat this curious and cool.
