PROGRAM NOTES

MARGARET AMELUNG — has done so many things with, for and to Little Theatre that it is not shocking to find her trying to "top her own success". Yes, she directed this one the first time around.

JOHN DOWNS — has been on stage, backstage, above stage and is another who has done parts of all of it from directing to acting and in between. With him by her side, Margaret has a real "killer".

ANN MARTIN — has given several fine performances for GLT; from Cinderella's fairy godmother to AUNT ABBEY.

DENNIS BOUCHARD — Really has grease paint in his veins; it shows in our pleasure just watching him on stage; but he works very hard back stage also. This time hello, REV. HARPER.

BILL WHITTINGTON — has done some of all of it from Officer (MTA President and GLT President) to joining the "fetch and carry gang" when this building was under construction. Is your favorite acting role still "as the lunatic with the Teddy Roosevelt complex"? PLAY IT AGAIN SAM oh, I mean TEDDY.

CHARLES MOSES — Another debut for GLT, and we expect big things from you in the future OFFICER BROPHY.

JOE WEXLER — gave us a real thrill in Fiddler; we hope you are back on stage often OFFICER KLEIN.

MARGARET HAMMONS — If its for Little Theatre-backstage, or on the boards she has helped to do it; chalk up another to the long line of successes AUNT MARTHA.

BARBARA MOORE — is one of our college group. We hope that she will keep her GLT interest and do a role even larger than ELAINE HARPER.

ROBERT MOOR — did you know Robin was a nickname? This member of the talented Moor family has given us 4 great performances, as well as lots of backstage help. We look forward to more MORTIMER.

LUTHER BOLTON — is making his second appearance on our stage and it is good to have him back, but he is another great backstage worker. All of your efforts are pleasing and appreciated MR. GIBBS.

LLOYD WILSON — is a young man with 15 years of acting background, beginning in his college years, and so varied as to make you wonder what he will try next; of course, it will be for GLT won't it JONATHAN?

DON MARTIN — is the man of many characters; from the be-wigged English Barrister in Witness to DR. EINSTEIN.

RICHARD WEISS — A newcomer to GLT. We are pleased to have this family join us. Dr. Weiss is a clinical psychologist, and does a real fine job as OFFICER O'HARA.

MARSHALL LEVITT — is another man of many talents. Marshall has given many excellent performances on stage and has worked very hard building sets, and taking them down. If he isn't on stage, he is "front row center", right LT. ROONEY?

ARTHUR RICHTER — We got him out of his garden and on stage; no spectator this time. Just another nice way of "being with people" isn't it MR. WITHERSPOON?
